Crédit Agricole Italia in Trento with Altios International to promote the companies internationalization

First stage of the initiative "Coffee with Companies", the Group on tour throughout Italy

Trento, 2 February 2023 - The new series of meetings of "Coffee with Companies", the itinerant initiative born from the collaboration between Crédit Agricole Italia and Altios International, has started from the Trento headquarters of Crédit Agricole in Piazza Pasila.

During this series of capillary meetings in the territories, Crédit Agricole Italia intends to accompany companies towards new opportunities and strategies, useful for the penetration of foreign markets, thanks to the Group's international network and to the services offered by its historical partner Altios International.

The first stage met with the participation of numerous companies from Trentino, interested in delving into particular issues related to countries where the Bank and Altios, thanks to their international specialists, can provide direct support, while amplifying their relational network.

"Crédit Agricole Italia confirms its commitment to disseminating financial education to companies that want to grow in an ever-changing economic context. - declares Marco Perocchi, Head of the Corporate Banking Department of Crédit Agricole Italia - After Trento, we plan to continue with more than 20 stops throughout the country where expert internal and external speakers will explore topics such as ESG and PNRR, internationalization and structured finance. Dialogue with local companies is indispensable for us to be at our customers' side, supporting and accompanying them in their transformation processes."

"This event," comments ALTIOS ITALIA Country Manager Mirko Mottino, "held in Trento, highlights how Italian companies need structured support for long-term international development. ALTIOS, with over 5000 references in internationalization projects, brings a unique know-how to accelerate the export development of Italian companies thanks to pragmatic solutions for business development, branch creation, administrative and accounting management, domiciliation, personnel selection, acquisitions in over 50 countries"
